Visit of seminarians & building collection 08th & 09th

June: So far, 7 priests have been ordained from the Redemptoris Mater Seminary for the Archdiocese of Armagh. There are currently 17 students for the priesthood being formed there. The Seminary building is too small and needs to be expanded. We have been asked if we could help by taking up a collection to contribute to the funding of the new building. The seminarians will be attending all Masses in Carlingford and Omeath over the weekend of the 8th and 9th June 2024 to introduce themselves and to assist in the liturgies. Envelopes will be available for those who would like to give a donation.
