Lifting the suspension on Sunday Mass duties

We pray in the Mass that it is 'indeed right and just, our duty and our salvation' to give thanks to the Lord, and the Sunday Eucharist is our greatest act of thanksgiving. During the Season of Lent, we encourage everyone to return to Sunday and weekday Mass in our churches, welcoming each other back as we gather once more together. From Easter Sunday, 17 April, this will once again be deemed an essential expression of faith for all in our Church in Ireland. As always, those whose health is vulnerable or who are unwell will not be under any obligation to attend Mass and should keep themselves safe and pray at home until they are better. (From Archbishop Eamon Martin)

Altar Servers We are welcoming back Altar Servers from Easter Sunday, 17/4/2022. Parents, please contact the parish office.

Armagh Archdiocesan Youth Retreat A one-day retreat will take place in Cookstown Parochial Centre for the Northern Part of the Diocese on Saturday 9th April and in the Oasis of Peace in Collon on Sunday 10th for the Southern Part of the Diocese. The day will commence at 10am with Mass celebrated by Bishop Michael Router and will conclude at 4pm. We hope this retreat will offer a space for preparation and prayer as we enter Holy Week. The retreat is open for over 18s. email armaghyouth@aracoeli.com Janet: +447968738486; Rob: 0868636296

Parish Cemeteries We encourage that the sentiments of the families who leave flowers around the graves of their loved ones be respected (adults & children). It is wrong to tamper with the flowers or wreaths or any mementoes left on other people's graves. Let us be respectful.

It is good to keep the cemeteries tidy. Please take the dead flowers home with you. Do not leave them around the cemeteries.
